

New Detective Training

APOSTC Law Enforcement Training Academy

Tuscaloosa, AL May 9-11

Training Provided by ProFirst Training

Police departments across the country do an excellent job preparing officers for patrol, but we tend to place new detectives in their new role with very little preparation. This course fills that gap. This course is specifically designed for new or recently-assigned investigators. It provides an initial orientation to the role of criminal investigator and the basic aspects and procedures of conducting an investigation. (24 hrs.)

Training topics will include:

- Case management
- Crime scene examination
- Surveillance techniques
- Warrants overview
- Courtroom testimony
- Plain clothes enforcement
- Conducting photo lineups
- Obtaining statements
- Scenario-based training
- Report writing
- Working with the D.A.'s office
- Working with victims and witnesses
- Search and Seizure overview
- Identifying and handling evidence
- Managing Informants
- Confrontational Interrogations

Upon completion, attendees will be prepared to assume the role of detective with a solid foundation upon which to build. This is a three-day class.
