

Police Surveillance Training

24 Hour Training Course

CU Boulder Police Department - CO

September 19-21 2022

This course is one of the most comprehensive physical surveillance training programs in the nation. The training is divided into both classroom training and field exercises. We prepare the student to work in a team environment, conducting fixed and moving surveillance with a vehicle and while on foot.

Topics Include

- Fundamentals of conducting surveillance
- Fixed vs. moving surveillance
- Gathering information through technological and covert means
- GPS monitoring and warrants
- Equipment familiarization (GPS, night vision, communication, video)
- Documentation / Collecting evidence
- Risk vs benefit
- Working as part of a team
- Conducting "Wall" stops
- Assuming the role of case agent
- Prohibited surveillance practices / Legal restrictions
- Deconfliction practices and responsibilities
- Ops plans
- Officer safety

Cost $595

Upon completion, students will be prepared to conduct fixed, moving or electronic surveillance by working alone or as part of a surveillance team. This is excellent training for the new detective or for a newly-assigned task force officer.

*Attendees must possess a laptop during the course, and attend with a unmarked vehicle. A signed release of liability will also be required from each attendee and their respective law enforcement agency. Part of this training will take place during nighttime hours.

Instructor: John Pallas (Deputy Chief, Retired—State of TN) John Pallas is a 29-year law enforcement veteran who served as Deputy Chief of Police for the law enforcement division of the State of Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission. In that role, John supervised command staff, oversaw the professional standards unit and served as the public information officer and director of training. He also has more than two decades of service in California in various capacities, including Vice Detective, Narcotics Task Force Investigator, F.T.O. and Reserve Program Coordinator. John also managed a high-profile task force team of investigators, comprised of FBI, DEA, IRS agents, as well as state and city law enforcement officers.
